The Tarot card called Judgement is about ending self judgement and being awakened and reborn by an Angel blowing a trumpet and releasing the past and moving towards a new life.

AT ONE MENT replacing Judgement! We face the selves we are not wanting to acknowledge or face and we learn to release our judgements of our past selves and move towards forgiveness thereby freeing ourselves so we can awake reborn and reawakened into a new life , set free from our past self judgements.

If there is someone you cannot forgive just look and see where you cannot forgive yourself for something similar and as you forgive yourself you can also forgive them. We are free to be our True Selves and advance on our spiritual journey .

In every instance of negativity or judgement I say to myself :

Ho'oponopono ~ I love you, I'm sorry, Please forgive me, Thank you.

I love you ~ You are a Divine infinite being deserving of only love, beauty and light.

I'm sorry ~ for holding any thoughts memories or programs that allow this negativity.

Please forgive me ~ I am ready to release all that is creating this and move beyond it.

Thank you... It is DONE....

BE THE BLESSING YOU TRULY BE
